The following is the comment of [redacted] analysts on reported Soviet plans to invade West Berlin:

1. No indication of unusual activity or of action against West Berlin was noted as of 28 September. 25X1
2. All Soviet troop movements are considered normal maneuver exercises. The activities of KVP units, presently under strength because of participation in the East German harvest, are also considered to be routine. It is not known whether larger KVP maneuvers are scheduled to take place after the harvest. No unusual activities can be attributed to the 24th and 4th Air Armies. Their participation in Soviet Army maneuvers has been noted. 25X1
3. It is believed that the HVD/P directive to the Volkspolizei for increased activity on 7 October (Day of the Republic) and on 17 October (parliamentary elections) may possibly have led to an erroneous report of hostile intentions against West Berlin 25X1
